Upton & Maks stirring big talk

Things seem to be heating up between Maksim Chmerkovskiy and Sports Illustrated model Kate Upton (both below) — though maybe not as much as it appeared over the weekend.

Upton met Maks' family Sunday in Huntington Harbor, L.I., where she and the former "Dancing With the Stars" pro were spotted at Harbor Club at Prime, hand in hand.

"The duo were guests at an all-white attire party held by his godmother, Jana Volynets, and her daughter, Nicole Volynets," we're told. The big bash celebrated Jana's 55th birthday and 35th wedding anniversary, for which she and hubby Eugene renewed their vows.

Upton and Chmerkovskiy were still on the party circuit that night, this time hitting a VMA party at Little Italy hot spot Goldbar.

"There was lots of P.D.A.," says one insider.

Tongues started wagging when some guests said a glowing Upton, still wearing white, appeared to have been sporting a baby bump. Speculation was further fueled by the fact the 21-year-old model didn't drink booze at the bash.

However, a source close to Chmerkovskiy laughed at the suggestion he's going to be a dad.

Upton's reps declined to speak about her personal life.
